ATTORNEYS AT LAW

OVERVIEW

Allegations of professional negligence and wrongdoing are very serious claims that have the power to ruin an individual's livelihood and professional reputation. Shuman McCuskey Slicer PLLC's errors and omissions litigation team has significant experience in handling a variety of errors and omissions matters in both state and federal courts through trial and appeal. Our extensive background in errors and omissions litigation has prepared us to represent a broad range of individuals, businesses, and government entities in defending our clients against accusations of wrongdoing.

Our errors and omissions litigation team routinely represents insurance agents and brokers facing allegations of failure to comply with industry guidelines, including issues involving bad faith, coverage requests, coverage updates, notification of cancellation or non-renewal, coverage recommendations, failure to procure coverage, and fraud or misrepresentation. Our attorneys understand how much is at stake when these claims arise and take every possible action to resolve professional liability claims at the earliest possible stage. We realize our client's goal resolution may not be attainable through settlement and are fully equipped to provide excellent representation through the trial and appeal process.

From the initial investigation through hearings and appeals, our attorneys prepare a unique defense strategy to best represent their clients to achieve a desirable outcome. Our attorneys work diligently throughout the litigation process to protect their client's licenses and careers.
