ATTORNEYS AT LAW

OVERVIEW

Our general litigation attorneys provide highly skilled legal representation to individuals, small businesses, major corporations, and insurance companies throughout West Virginia, Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, New York, North Carolina, and Pennsylvania. We defend against all civil litigation types and approach each case with the same respect and due diligence, whether it is a minor car accident, a premises liability case, or a major coal mining disaster.

Our general litigation attorneys have extensive trial and appellate court experience. Understanding that our client's time and resources are of utmost value, we use our experience to resolve concerns efficiently and effectively. Our extensive industry experience affords us the ability to provide legal services at competitive prices, focusing on unique and aggressive representation during all litigation phases, whether it be before the suit is filed, alternative dispute resolution, or at trial.

We understand choosing a law firm to represent you is an intimidating task. At Shuman McCuskey Slicer PLLC, we believe an undying commitment to and open communication with our clients is not only essential to client satisfaction, but it is also the best way to reach an outcome that matches our clients' goals. As general litigation attorneys, we understand wholeheartedly and appreciate all that is at stake in a client's case. That is why our attorneys are so passionate about working diligently to build a strong case while simultaneously advocating, communicating, and counseling our clients throughout the decision-making process. Our clients know that their case is being handled with specific attention to their objectives and concerns through a mutually respectful attorney-client relationship.
